Application for Registration of Historic Places and Historic Areas

Registration signifies that a place or area is part of New Zealand's historical and cultural heritage. Your application must identify the heritage values of the place or area you recommend for registration. You must also explain why you believe those values are important. Your explanations must be supported by evidence. Incomplete or unsupported applications are unlikely to be accepted.

Before you start

- Is the place/area already registered? Check with your local NZHPT regional or Area office. (See the Guideline for contact details.)
- Read the Information Sheet.
- Read the Guideline.
