The Assumption

The Half-Finished Heaven

Despondency breaks off its course.
Anguish breaks off its course.
The vulture breaks off its flight.

The eager light streams out,
even the ghosts take a draught.

And our paintings see daylight,
Our red beasts of the ice-age studios.

Everything begins to look around.
We walk in the sun in hundreds.

Each man is a half-open door leading to a room for everyone.

The endless ground under us.

The water is shining through the trees.

The lake is a window into the earth.

Tomas Tranströmer

Church roof repair Two slates fell off the south western corner of the church roof in a high wind event recently. They have also sealed up the gap in the concrete wall between the sanctuary and the nave where birds have been infiltrating for some time.

Christchurch Anglican Care to withdraw from aged care business Anglican Care used to run three rest homes, Fitzgerald House in Avonside, Churchill Courts in Shirley and Bishopspark in Park Terrace. The earthquakes destroyed Churchill Courts and it was never replaced. In a sudden and shock announcement the board of AC has announced that it will gradually run down Fitzgerald House and Bishopspark, not admitting any new residents, actively assisting those who wish to move elsewhere and slowly reducing the amount of support to the diminishing number of residents at its two remaining homes. This course of action is justified on the grounds that AC has been losing money and cannot compete with the higher level of services provided by the large players who have recently entered the aged care business. The decision is of a piece with last year's decision by the diocese of Waiapu to sell off its three homes to another aged care provider. The Christchurch decision has implications for the parish of Holy Trinity Avonside which derives part of its funding from the Chaplaincy fees for providing Services at Fitzgerald House and which drew some of its worshippers from there. The Dunedin diocese has rest homes in Oamaru, Gore, Invercargill and two in Dunedin, St Barnabas in St Clair originally founded by St Peter's, and Leslie Groves, which is run by the Roslyn parish. There is no centralised board that runs these homes but each has its own board. They too struggle on in the face of increasing competition from the Summersets and Rymans of this world. It is significant that in recent years no St Peter's parishioners have chosen to live at St Barnabas while not a few have become residents of Frances Hodgkins.
