Ordinary 14

Collect.

Christ of the new covenant,
give us the happiness to share with full

Kia Ora From the Curate

Faith means so many things to different people. On the surface it is our convictions around what we believe in and trust. It also defines how we live our lives and how we demonstrate our faith to the world around us. Looking at what has happened in our parish this week I have seen so much faith in action. Rev Natalie and Dan working hard to make the cottage a livable space. Denis and others assembling the first stage new kitchen. All because they have faith in our community and belief that this work enables us to serve God's mission from St Peter's for many decades to come.

Faith was also mentioned at today's funeral for our beloved Father Carl. He was described by many as a 'man of great faith'. We heard how, through faith, he was able to overcome obstacles and to fit in to many different communities on both sides of the world. It is one thing to faithfully believe in God, but it is another to have this faith as a central part of a life with Christ. Carl demonstrated this through his actions, teaching, and the faith communities he was part of. We are incredibly blessed that Carl was part of our community here at St Peter's.
