From the Vicar

Blindness isn't always a result lack of eyesight. We can often be blind to things that we see but do not register. Situations and events that we may consider normal or unnoteworthy, can appear to others a inappropriate or unjust. Societal blindness has enabled practices and behaviours to destroy lives and families. The superficial concept of normality robs us of our unique abilities and gifts, our worth and our responsibility. Christ offers us the gift of clarity of eyes and heart. I pray he opens the eyes of our church to see the kingdom of God at is with us.
