From the Vicar

St Peter's had the pleasure of hosting the Annual Interfaith Dinner last Tuesday. Over a hundred people from a number of faiths brought food and had a lovely time.

This beautiful occasion is symbolic of what can be achieved if each of us recognise that we are all children of the Creator. No two children in a family are the same and as they grow their personal experiences and perceptions can differ greatly from that of their siblings.

I have always enjoyed learning and sharing different food, perspectives and faiths. Christ proclaimed the gospel to all who came to him. My responsibility is to listen to others, share similarities and proclaim Christ's gospel through joy and loving action. God died for all and loves everyone more than I possibly can, so I'm going to let God manifest himself as he chooses.
