From the Vicar

Well it's finally happened. Dan and I moved into the Cottage over the weekend. We have missed not being in Caversham and are looking forward to catching up on the community members we've not seen for almost 7 months and we certainly won't miss the drive up to Highcliff.

I haven't been well and am thankful that I can rely on others to share the load. Thank you for your support and prayers. God has brought us together to witness the Gospel and share our gifts and talents.

The diocese will be selecting the new bishop in a fortnight. If the selection process is not concluded on Saturday David Hoskins, Deirdre Harris and I will be absent on Sunday. I have found a service titled Praise, Prayer and Proclamation, that will allow St Peter's to keep the doors open and also receive the Eucharist.

It is important that we meet together and use all the gifts available in this church and not let worship be interrupted.
