Kia ora tatou.

This has been an incredibly hard week. Saying goodbye to Natalie, Dan and Zak was very difficult. Their absence will be felt for a very long time.

Their impact on the parish of St Peter's has been huge, both spiritually and in practical terms. Their hard work has left St Peter's in a far better position as we face the future.

Firstly, I want to say that is okay to feel sad and to miss them.

Secondly it is also okay to be wary of the period of change that is just starting. There is a great deal to do over the next 6 to 12 months as we seek a replacement. The great thing is that we are not doing it on our own. We have amazing support from our new Bishop, Anne, and the team in the Diocesan Office.

We also have the time to follow this path at our own pace. I have agreed to 'hold the reins' as interregnum for at least a year to enable us to take our time.

I firmly believe that St Peter's is a very holy, spirit filled, church and community. Please hold our parish in your prayers as we discern God's plan and what this looks like.

God is Good!
